THE NUT IS BACK

It's fall and the NUT is back from summer vacation. Membership is always interested in your personal happenings, well, maybe not all of them, but If you have a child in college, a weddings, a grandchild, a a trip you are going to make, please let the editor know about it.

THE “Y” GOLF TOURNEY

Six of our members participated in Pete Smargon's YMCA gold tournament at the Thomson Country Club in North Reading two weeks ago including Don Washburn, Pete himself, Art Hayden, John Douglass, Steve Chuha and Dick Haggerty. Don played with a Massbank group, while Pete was busy directing everything and making sure everyone had drinks and snacks while playing. Art, John, Steve and Dick played as a foursome and had a very respectable score of six under par. This was good enough for fourth place but not good enough to win a prize. It was a beautiful day and we had a great lunch afterwards. Pete and his assistants did a great job of organizing and running the tourney.

NICE TO HAVE LAURIE BACK

Isn't it nice that Laurie Cavagnaro is back and doesn't she look great. She's had a rough time these past several months but looks chipper. She is back at work and is in full participation at Rotary.

HOME SWEET HOME

Chicago is the birth place of Rotary and on our 100th anniversary, Rotary is returning to the windy city for our annual convention. The dates for the event are June 18-22, 2005. I have not been there recently myself but everyone I talk to who has raves about the place. It has been converted from that “Hog butcher to the world” city into a real neat cosmopolitan place full of friendly mid-westerners. There are many exciting activities planned so when you get a chance pick-up your October “Rotarian” magazine and read the details. There is a complete schedule of events. And by the way plane fairs to just about anywhere in the US are down so this would be a great time to see an international Rotary convention.

DON'T FORGET E-MAILS

Tim Kelley is once again managing our website and distributing e-mails. So if you have something to pass along to membership you can send it to Tim, his e-mail address is tjkelly@gis.net.

Dick Haggerty is editor of the NUT and is always looking for news and information that will be of interest to our members. You can call him at 781-944-2200, fax him at 781-942-0884 or E-mail at Readingchroinicle@comcast.net
