HELP JAY OUT

It is not too soon to give Jay Dowd a hand with his lists of potential advertisers in the Auction 2008 Special Ad section. It seems that it is at the eleventh hour every year that this thing comes together, so for once it would be nice to allow Jay sufficient time to do his job. Linda Cottone is helping this year to make sure that each and every ad is scrutinized for its correctness in copy and content. If you did not receive a list, see Jay and I am sure he will provide you with a list of potential supporters.

MIKE’S DOING OKAY.

Mike Summerer is home and recuperating from a stroke and heart problems. He went to the Melrose Wakefield Hospital back on the weekend of February 9-10 and President Lynne made note of the fact at our February 11th meeting. Lynne spoke to Mike at his home this morning and he is making a remarkable recovery. “I am getting better every day” was his comment to Lynne. It is hoped that he will return to our meetings in the very near future. Get well quickly, Mike.

RICHIE A TV STAR

Richie Lombardo returned from his recent visit to the Super Bowl as a TV star. It seems that on two separate occasions he ended up being interviewed on Channel 25 Fox Network News. I didn’t catch either performance but it’s rumored that the women went wild.

TWO NEW MEMBERS

We have two new potential members in Lisa Gibbs, who is well known to our membership through the school committee and Jill Murray who is the Marketing Manager at Longwood Place on Pearl Street. Both must now go through the process to become full members.

COMEDY NIGHT IS COMING

President Lynne announced to yours truly that a Comedy Night event will be forthcoming in the near future. In the past several years we have had one at the Prince Pizza House on Route 1 and it was very well attended. I would suspect the same would be the case this year. We’ll keep you posted as more information becomes available. And remember, we are in need of funds as both the comedy club in the fall and the Taste of Reading have not come to fruition. As soon as we get the date we’ll pass it along.
