LYNNE IS BACKING DOWN AT PETER SANBORN

President Lynne has made the decision to back down her time at Peter Sanborn Place. It is, however, not expected to have any impact on her duties as Rotary President. She wants more time to spend in Vermont were told and of course, more time on her Harley Davidson. Present plans call for her to go from a four day, 10 hour day program to a 2 and 1/2 day time span. I'm guessing that the time would come at the early part of the week. Lynne has certainly been a big part of Peter Sanborn Place and like us Rotarians, every one there has the utmost respect for her and her wonderful smile. Get riding Lynne.

ON VACATION

Art and Jane Hayden are due back from two weeks in Florida. Just in time for the beginning of the gold season. Art has a cousin down there who they stay with on the west coast I'm pretty sure. Jacquie Carson and her husband, Brian are also due back from a golfing vacation in Florida. I'm not sure the exact location but we'll check it out and let you know.

CONGRATS TO READING HIGH HOCKEY STATE CHAMPIONS

The Reading Memorial High School hockey team has done what no other public school team has been able to accomplish in seventeen years. Win the Super Eight Tournament outright. Every other year it has been won by a Catholic School. Mostly by Catholic Memorial. The Rockets ended 25-1 with a lone loss coming to BC High, a defeat they would avenge. Along the way they would beat four Catholic's and Waltham High with the championship coming Sunday night against Malden Catholic, 3-0. The Rockets have been in the super eight many times but this year they went all the way with a terrific offense and a disciplined defense. Two of their favorite fans were Diana and Ed Kaine whose grandson, John took a regular shift on the squad. Much credit goes to Coach Peter Doherty and his staff for their years of hard word in grooming many Reading High teams to the highest level of high school hockey in the state.. Well done Rockets!

ANOTHER AUCTIONEER

We have another auctioneer in our midst. Dave Burnham will be at the mike when the Church of Christ have their annual auction on Saturday, April 12. David did the job last year and they asked him to come back again this year. Dave said it is a fun-filled night and if you are interested in going let him know. I am sure he can give you all the details.

COMEDY NIGHT IS COMING

The date for the Comedy Night is May 15 a Thursday night at Giggles Comedy Club on route 1 in Saugus. The plan is pretty the same as in past years with the cost to be approximately $20 a head (Final numbers are not in as yet). So mark you calendar, it is always a fun time.
