READING FRIENDS AND FAMILY DAY

The Reading Friends and Family Day will be held this year on Saturday, June 15 from 11:00 am to 3:00 pm at the Birch Meadow field area. Once again it is under the direction of the Reading Lions Club and in past years we have participated. I am pretty sure by selling Italian Slush. Dom Rotondi of the Lions made mention of it to me recently and said we donated $500 to last year's event and thus far at least he has not heard from anyone in our club. He gave me an application for the event and would very much like to hear from our Board of Directors. I have not heard mention of it at our luncheons so I am not sure what is going on. I guess it's a matter for the officers and board of directors.

TENNESSEE BOUND.

The editor will be out of here next week in order to visit his daughter, Erin in Nashville, Tennessee. There will also be a side trip with Erin and Dick's son Rich and his friend Derek Samuelson to Louisville, Kentucky to see the pageant and race for the Roses at the Kentucky Derby. It is expected that 80,000 horse racing fans will be there. It should be exciting. I'll give you an update when I get back. Any tips on your favorite horse?
